

INTERNSHIP JOB DESCRIPTION: INITIATIVES / ADVOCATE

Overview

H.E.L.P. is a grassroots, faith-based, start-up non-profit organization launched in 2009. We desire to create a global tribe of people who are dedicated to ending extreme poverty by rescuing orphans, restoring their hope and renewing their communities.

H.E.L.P. is looking to hire one intern who will focus on our key initiatives. This role could eventually lead to a part-time or full-time position.

Job Summary

Job Type: Internship, part-time or full-time, 10-15 hours per week.

Compensation: None, but may raise your own support.

Location: NW Arkansas

We're looking for a motivated individual with a passion for the global poor, especially the orphan. This individual will help drive the revenue for our key initiatives (Help One Now, Garage Sale 4 Orphans and Help The Orphan). They will set up various events tied to our initiatives (such as Help One Sundays, House Shows, speaking events, etc). This person must be independent, be willing to produce results on a consistent basis, and be a team player that can challenge the process and add value to the team.

Job Qualifications

If you're familiar with the terms "linchpin", tribes, and becoming remarkable, then you will understand the ethos of H.E.L.P. We need global advocates for the poor; individuals who will work hard, stay focused, and implement ideas so we can effectively serve the global poor.

Job Specifics

- Work closely with Director of Operations to implement the initiatives strategy
- Create 60-90 day plan-of-action for key projects
- Be deeply committed to the vision, mission and philosophy of H.E.L.P.
